Continuation of 4(e) Other: The Applicant has not adequately addressed the newly added claims 79-86. The Applicant, without supporting arguments, simply concluded that the art cited does not teach the newly presented claims (see page 22). 37 CFR 1.111(b) states, In order to be entitled to reconsideration or further examination, the applicant or patent owner must reply to the Office action. The reply by the applicant or patent owner must be reduced to a writing which distinctly and specifically points out the supposed errors in the examiner's action and must reply to every ground of objection and rejection in the prior Office action. The reply must present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references.
